Texas College and Career Readiness Network

Greetings!

Be sure to save the dates of upcoming Spotlight Events going on in your area.

Leaving a Clear Trail

Earning a diploma signifies the completion of one's education, but it is the Academic Achievement Record (AAR) that tells the whole story. Participants will receive an overview of the relationship between state and district graduation requirements (House Bill 5) and more.

Early College High School - Professional Learning Series

For the past 10 years, Educate Texas has provided educators with the necessary instructional strategies, supports, protocols and tools to ensure that students are able to complete the rigorous course work required in an early college environment. To share their expertise with both new and established Early College High Schools, Educate Texas is hosting professional learning opportunities beginning this summer that will include three intensive sessions covering instruction, student supports, and data. Principals, teachers, counselors and higher education liaisons will benefit from the lessons learned and shared experiences from other early college high schools.
