THECB and UH Host Annual Student Success Summit

The 2015 Student Success Summit offered access to national and regional speakers and program resources in support of student success in higher education.

Julie Schell, Director and Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Teas at Austin, was among the summit's presenters. Her presentation, entitled "How to Help People Remember What They Learn" challenged educators to understand why their students often fail to remember essential course material, despite spending a good deal of time studying.

AVATAR has addressed several critical issues to ensure vertically aligned curriculum that extends from high schools to two- and four- year colleges. Their involvement in the college and career readiness world has implications for the THECB's recently adopted strategic plan that "60 percent of 'Generation Texas' will have a postsecondary credential or degree by 2030."
