▶ Three things I learned today.

~ that it is not just my students who resist buying books, and that I still want them to buy the books.

~ that tailoring a course to the population doesn't mean you are "pandering" to an audience. →

▶ Two ideas I want to know more about.

~ more about cross-disciplinary standards

~ more about remediation - what is it? remediation? when is it leveling?

▶ One action from my plan I will begin next week.

I will continue teaching my ENG 4160 students (who are mostly teacher certification-seeking) a rhetorical framework for writing.
